GrowthDNA Program

We start with the end in mind. What is the desired outcome for your company, for your employees, and for you? The GrowthDNA program not only helps you identify and deliver those outcomes but unlocks your organization's ability to achieve remarkable results year in and year out.

How does it work?

There are four distinct stages, each building on the last. Each stage strengthens a different GrowthDNA strand essential to achieving your growth goals. While the program follows a sequence that builds GrowthDNA, each stage is tailored to your organization's strengths and challenges. By the time the program is completed the strands are intertwined, not linear, enabling synergies that drive higher levels of performance.

This comprehensive program leaves nothing out. You will have a world-class advisor working alongside you and your team providing new processes, new ideas, and over the life of the 12- month program, a transfer of knowledge and responsibility for the organization's growth results.

Methodology: These strands are completed in sequence as each build on the next. Once established, they operate as intertwined strands, ensuring a dynamic rather than linear approach to strategic management. Each phase has its own deliverable.

- Confidence: Most, but not all, of this phase is accomplished virtually. A list of desired documents is generated and once available, usually in Dropbox or similar, analyzed for key insights. Research can also be executed virtually. However, interviews are usually conducted on-site as it yields better results. (4-8 weeks)
- Clarity: This phase includes two facilitated on-site meetings of a day and a half each approximately three weeks apart. (4-6 weeks)
- Commitment: Typically, this phase is completed on-site in two one-day meetings. Some assignments will be developed via virtual means. The comprehensive Commitment plan is completed within 4 weeks of having all needed documentation. (4-8 weeks)
- Culture: The remainder of the year is spent in this phase. Primarily, this stage involves communicating primarily with the internal leader of the GrowthDNA program, the person driving the change. At a minimum, there will be a regularly scheduled two-hour meeting monthly however, support is available any time a need arises. In addition, the leader will be invited to network with other executives in the program to exchange ideas and solutions.

Investment: $71,000 for the 12-month program.
